#HelloYellow

YOUNGMINDS

On Thursday 10th October we joined thousands of schools across the UK by taking part in Hello Yellow, in support of YoungMinds.

To mark this day, all children and staff wore something yellow and took part in some mindful activities across the day.

Thank you to anyone who donated to the charity and any further donations can still be made by following this link (also found on the school Facebook page):

NEW BOOKS

Thanks to a couple of very generous donations from members of the Wellington community, we have been able to buy nearly 200 new books for our school library.

The books are a mixture of texts to revitalise our Accelerated Reader scheme and some brand new releases (seen in the photo) to boost the love and enjoyment of reading for all children.

Thank you again to the wonderful school community for your amazing support.

Cookery Club with Miss Blankley

On Fridays Miss Blankley runs a cookery club with some of the children.

Over the last two weeks they have made some delicious looking pizza and yummy fruit kebabs.
